This tune comes from North Carolina fiddler Gaither Carleton (1901-1972), who was Doc Watson's father-in-law, and a friend of the great Clarence "Tom" Ashley. The low, or course part of this tune bears an obvious resemblance to Leather Britches, but the two parts fit well together, like a fiddle tune should.