Good advice, even for folks who aren't named Johnny. This tune was in the repertoires of Kentucky fiddlers Owen Chapman and Art Stamper. It's a rousing tune.

The trickiest part of the whole arrangement is the backward roll that starts it off. Listen to what the fiddle is doing to understand the syncopation, which is a common fiddle tune pattern.