

This great tune was collected by fiddler Garry Harrison from old time fiddler Howard Sims (1898-1977) of Modesto, Illinois. Apparently, Sims was a farmer and a accomplished contest fiddler who, for religious reasons, refused to play for dances. For this setting the banjo is in double C tuning (gCGCD).