The image displays a guitar tablature for the song "Ships Are Sailing". It is arranged in a 2/4 time signature. The notation is organized into systems, each with a measure number on the left and a chord name above the staff. The chords used are Em, D, and G. The tablature includes various techniques such as hammer-ons (H), slides (Sl), and bends (1/4). The strings are labeled D, A, G, D, A from top to bottom. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign at the end of the final system.

I don't remember where I first heard this Irish tune. It's in the key of E minor, which I have set in D modal tuning, with the capo on the second fret. Note that measure 29 replaces measure 18, when you are heading back to the beginning repeat.
