

I GET MY WHISKEY FROM ROCKINGHAM

Earl Johnson and His Clodhoppers

G D7
Where'd you get your whiskey, where'd you get your dram?

G C D7 G
I got it from a little girl way down in Rockingham.

Rocky Road Cindy, down to Rockingham.

I went down to Rockingham, I did not go to stay,
I fell in love with a pretty little girl and I could not get away.
Rocky Road Cindy, rocky road to town,
Rocky Road Cindy, down to Rockingham.

Cheeks as red as a red rose, her hair was huckleberry brown,
The sweetest girl I ever saw, way down in Rockingham.
Rocky Road Cindy, rocky road to town,
Rocky Road Cindy, down to Rockingham.

I went to see my Cindy once, Went to see her twice,
Second time I saw her, I asked her to be my wife.
Rocky Road Cindy, rocky road to town,
Rocky Road Cindy, down to Rockingham.

Did I kiss my Cindy once? Did I kiss her twice?
I tell you the way it's kissin', will take us down tonight.*
Rocky Road Cindy, rocky road to town,
Rocky Road Cindy, down to Rockingham.

* I'll tell you where I kissed her, gonna kiss her there tonight.
