This fiddle rag in the key of C was first recorded a string trio called the Southern Kentucky Mountaineers for Spertone Records in 1929, The Mountaineers were Dick Taylor on fiddle, accompanied by Bird Moore on banjo and Dick Burnett on guitar. This version, however, is based on a recording of the Troxell brothers, Clyde and Ralph, playing fiddle and banjo, who were recorded by Ray Alden at their home in Rocky Branch, Kentucky, around 1990. They are very close to the Taylor original.
